Nationals Lose First Game of Series to Cape Cod Crew

HARRY HOOPER'S HIT GIVES VICTORY TO RED SOX CREW

Harry Harper Has Indian Sign on Barrow's Boston Tribe.
By JOHN A. DUGAN.
Boston, May 6.—This world is a funny one, as today Cape Cod Fortune deserted Clark Griffith and his National tribe and jumped into the open arms of one Eddie Barrow. That Cape Cod Fortune and all her luck was with the Boston Red Sox in the initial battle which the hopefuls from the Capital City lost to Barrow's tribe by a score of 2 to 0, going without putting it into statistics.

A lucky break that only a gambler who has been going upside down would expect placed this contest in the hands of the Nationals. It was a case of a lone tally, if such a crack off the willow can be called a safe hit, that gave the Sox the victory, as early the national pastime developed into a pitching battle between Harry Harper for the invaders and Ray Caldwell of the home-folk clan.

Harry Hooper's scratch single in the second frame along with "Moxie" Williams' lead-off home run in the third Cape Cod luck that old Cape Fortune has ever wished upon anyone to make possible the two counters that were the Nationals' when Tommy from up here somewhere in New England made possible the first counter for the Red Sox.

Any old ball is better than none at all, the most of the managers, fans and players figure out this old game, along with many more of the indoor pastimes, but so far this season it is possible that the Red Sox have been the most considered by the first-class umpires, and then think of what he is missing in the amateur leagues back there in the District of Columbia. He can be wrong even if they carry the "Car head" of an American League umpire, and Tommy was all but today when he passed Oscar Williams' record over the home plate, which started all the trouble for both Harper and his team mates in the second frame.

Scott popped out, but Walters caught the base path brigade when Foster booted his slow grounder. Although things looked bright for the Nationals when Caldwell whiffed on the third frame, the home crowd jumped into the same circuit with Cape Fortune. Harry Hooper smashed one over second base on the hit-and-run play, which Caldwell knocked down into right field after coming close to making one of the greatest stops ever seen in Fenway Park. Hank Rice, Miller Judge and Janvin were all attempting to recover the pill that had bounced so luckily off the Louisville held by Hooper, the Red Sox had chased another two into the outfield.

Caldwell pitched brilliant ball against the Griffins as he allowed but five men to get on the pathways, while Joe Judge was the only one to get as far as the midway station, this coming as a result of his two-base knock. Harper was never in hot water after the second frame when the Red Sox came up, but the home crowd, who Janvin was given life in the eighth on Scott's error of his offering, Eddie Gharriy was used as pinch puncher for the Hackensack infielders and Jolly O. Craft called in to finish the route, which had in real major-league style. Hal Janvin was given a regular welcome home by the fans as the former Boston infielder was greeted with applause on all sides and on his first appearance to the plate he answered with a safe blow. Janvin's fielding was remarkable on two occasions, he knocked down hits while Harper was on the hill and once on Craft he repeated with the best play of the contest.

CURLEY AND JONES IN BIG FIGHT

New York, May 6.—More interest is being taken in this year's Kentucky Derby than in any other year, so far as turfmen and patrons of the sport in the East are concerned. Many wagers have been made on the Kentucky Derby, and the most frequently mentioned, Emil Herz, who two years ago and last year made a future book, has booked many a horse against his own. He also has laid one big wager against Dunboyne's chances in the Preckwinkle.

INTERMEDIATE CLASS CAPTURE TRACK MEET

Paris, May 6.—The three-day track and field meet at Le Mans, ending yesterday, was won by the intermediate section of the A. E. F. Fred Fuller of the Boston Athletic Association, finished first in the eight-mile marathon in forty-one minutes and fifty-three seconds.

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Technical High triumphed over the Emerson Institute baseball nine on the Monument lot diamond yesterday by 7 to 2.

BIG FIGHT AT BAYVIEW PARK

Situated on Maumee Bay Near Toledo Yacht Club Grounds.

Toledo, Ohio, May 6.—Bayview Park, where the Dempsey-Willard fight will be staged, is a city property comprising about sixty acres, on Maumee Bay. It is perfectly level and during the war was used as a landing place for airplanes. It was intended for amateur sports and a general recreation grounds. At one end is the big club house of the Toledo Yacht Club.

The park is three miles from the center of the city and can be reached in twenty minutes on the street cars.

Mayor Schreiber, now in Cincinnati, telephoned to his secretary his approval for approving the fight.

Probably more than $25,000 will go to the charities' fund of the Toledo Boxing Commission.

It will be an exhibition of clean sport.

Boxing is a national institution. Thousands of visitors will be entertained by Toledo and the city's advantage will be brought before the entire nation.

Chevy Chase Club maintained its advantage in the women's District championship golf tournament yesterday when its representatives won six of the eight first round matches played over the Kirkside Golf Club course.

The other two matches went to Bannockburn players. A high wind sweeping the course made the scoring difficult, but the victors generally played up to their game.

Mrs. Charles L. Frailey, winner of the last title tournament held in 1916, and Mrs. Ormsby MacMahon, Monday's medalist, both of Chevy Chase Club, took their matches in the lower bracket.

Mrs. Frailey met determined opposition in her engagement with Mrs. Fleming, a club member.

One match was not decided until a third extra hole was played when Mrs. DeFaria, of Bannockburn, won from Mrs. Savage, Chevy Chase. Yesterday's results and today's pairings follow:
